Experience

Beatriz works in Litigation and Public Law.

She is an expert in defending clients before the Civil Courts, the Administrative Courts and in proceedings before the Court of Justice of the European Union.

She currently leads the practice on claims for damages related to competition law infringements, and is entrusted with providing legal advice on highly significant domestic and international matters in the automotive, energy, agri-food, financial and construction sectors, among others. Beatriz heads one of the pioneering teams in this practice in Spain and is recognised in the industry for her extensive experience in handling complex multi-jurisdictional matters.

An expert in public procurement and its recent changes, Beatriz also provides ongoing advice to domestic and international clients taking part in public bidding processes, and represents her clients in legal proceedings related to public procurement.

Beatriz García actively collaborates in scholarly activities in different areas of public and contract law, through teaching activities, publishing research articles and authoring academic texts. She has participated as an expert in public procurement in various courses and conferences organised by IFAES (International Forum for Executives) and as a speaker in public procurement and energy law in courses organised by the firm.

Her practice covers all areas related to judicial proceedings including:

- Protecting and defending her clients' interests in matters of unfair competition and damage claims
- Defending clients in claims for damages in public procurement and civil works matters
- Defending clients in consumer and user issues
- Representing clients in legal proceedings on matters of energy
- Defending clients in proceedings related to subsidies

She is highly skilled in advising on administrative proceedings and leading out-of-court negotiations.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

Beatriz García regularly gives classes at various universities. She is a lecturer on public procurement in the Master's Degree in Business Law at the University of Navarra and was a member of the ICADE Master's Degree in Access to the Legal Profession.
