Experience

Qualified in both French and Spanish law, Partner Florence Legeay specialises in M&A and corporate transactions, both in Spain and abroad (UK, USA, Chile, Colombia, etc.). She has extensive experience in deals implying public services concessionary companies. As an expert in Spanish corporate law, she acts as legal advisor in corporate matters for listed and non-listed companies. Florence also intervenes in many Real Estate transactions, including sale and purchase of real estate assets – through asset or share deals – project finance, leasing and development of premises dedicated to health and education activities, touristic complexes and commercial parks. Florence regularly advises Spanish non-profit organisations as regards their legal obligations, in particular in relation with legal transparency requirements. Throughout all areas of her practice, Florence advises numerous French speaking investors interested in the Spanish Market.
